WINE “DOGGY BAG” LAW

Maryland restaurant diners who order a bottle of wine with their meal but don’t finish the whole bottle may take the bottle home with them.

- The license holder or an employee of the license holder must insert cork or place a cap on the unfinished bottle.
- This law applies ONLY to WINE and does not cover beer or spirits.
- Maryland law prohibits open containers in what are considered to be “passenger areas” of automobiles. Remind your customers that the unfinished bottle of wine is still considered an “open container”. It MUST be transported in the trunk, cargo area, locked glove compartment or area behind the rear-most seat of an automobile. We recommend the bottle be placed in a bag for transport.
- This law applies ONLY to unfinished bottles of wine. The law DOES NOT allow for full bottles of wine to be sold to go.

Provide all new and existing employees with copies of your alcohol sales policies.

PROMOTER GUIDELINES

Businesses licensed to sell alcohol are permitted to hire outside promoters/DJs for special events. Keep in mind that your license will be charged for any offenses that occur at your establishment even if a promoter is put in charge. Protect yourself by developing responsible policies for your staff and guests. Hire only responsible promoters who have strong policies in place. When in doubt about a promotion or local or state law, call the Department of Liquor Control's Outreach Office at (240) 777-1904 or e-mail dlc@montgomerycountymd.gov

Promoters can make or break your establishment. Before hiring a promoter consider the risks involved. Protect yourself...

- Hire only responsible promoters with responsible policies. Ask for references and call them.
- A promoter should never be responsible for the door. Remember they are often paid by head. ID checking should be left up to you or a trusted staffer who has nothing to gain and a lot to lose by letting someone slip by.
- Remember that no matter what happens in your establishment it is your responsibility. Never trust someone else to run your business. Set policies for your staff and promoters to follow. Have them sign a paper copy of your policies to make sure there is an understanding of what is expected.
- Make sure everyone has a valid ID. Do not accept vertical IDs.
- Be a presence! Have security inside, not just at the door. Make sure they are dressed so that they can be easily identified. All staff should wear a staff t-shirt or uniform.
- Ask the DJ to slow music in advance of closing down so patrons are not forced to leave all at once.
- Don't allow people to loiter in front of or around your establishment. Ask them to enter or leave.
- If you're selling or serving alcohol, make sure you comply with legal hours of sales and service. Allow your staff enough time to remove alcohol product from the bar and tables before the 30 minute grace period ends.
- Do not permit the promoter to encourage promiscuous activity or drinking contests. If the promoter uses acts as part of the promotion, make sure they are done in good taste.
- For under 21 events, all alcohol product should be covered and out of reach of underage patrons. Call us for a list of best practices when hosting under 21 events.

89% of American customers don't mind waiting in line while you check IDs – take your time.

SERVER LIABILITY

Establishments need to be careful of over-service.

- Offer high-protein foods to patrons before alcohol consumption begins.
- Document the details of incidents such as refusing alcohol service, arranging transportation for a guest, refusing the false ID of a minor and calling police to your establishment. An incident report can be helpful in the event of a lawsuit.
- Keep incident reports for three years.
- Train servers to be aware of the alcohol content of different drinks.
- Develop a policy for safe alcohol consumption.
- Create guidelines for handling intoxicated guests: be sure to encourage tact. If the intoxicated guest resists, get him away from other patrons so he can be spoken to privately.
- Servers need to be backed up by management when cutting off service to someone who has had too much to drink.

87% of Americans support the 21 year old drinking law – check IDs.
